If you fail to make the scheduled payments on or before the corresponding due dates provided above, or if a bank or finance company returns any portion of the payment, the settlement will no longer be valid.

Once all funds clear your bank and the proceeds are applied to your loan, it will be considered settled in full. Additionally, it will be reported to the four credit bureaus (TransUnion, Experian, Innovis and Equifax) as, "Settlement accepted on this account." If an amount greater than the enclosed offer is paid, it will be accepted for payment and will not entitle you to a refund unless the amount paid exceeds the actual balance owed.

If you have questions, please contact us at [Redacted] during normal business hours.

Sincerely,
