Important Information Regarding Your Account: Action Required

Dear [REDACTED]

When our customers face financial difficulty we try to help whenever possible. Fifth Third Bank, in an effort to resolve the outstanding debt on your account, would like to offer you a settlement*.

What this means to you

Currently the payoff balance of your loan is $11,675.07. Fifth Third Bank is willing to accept $4,670.03 as the settlement amount and will report the account as "charged off - account paid in full for less than full balance" to the credit bureaus.

What this means to you

On September 30th 2019 Fifth Third Bank was awarded a money judgment against you. The judgment balance as of today is $11,675.07. Fifth Third Bank is willing to accept the amount of $4,670.03 as the settlement amount. We will then report the account as "charged off - account paid in full for less than full balance" to the credit bureaus and satisfy the judgment. To accept this offer, please contact the Recovery Vendor Management Team at 844-527-6436.

If you are not interested and decline this settlement offer, the entire balance, along with additional interest and fees associated with the collection of this debt, will remain due per the contract dated April 9th, 2019
