To Whom It May Concern:

This letter serves as confirmation that Springleaf will accept less than the full balance to settle on the above referenced loan. This settlement offer will be accepted on the current balance and will relinquish you of further responsibility regarding this debt. This offer is contingent on the settlement amount being received in our office by the specified due dates.

Upon clearance of funds for the final payment, the debt will be satisfied and the credit bureau will be notified to report this account as "settled in full". Failure to comply with said agreement forfeits the settlement offer and the entire balance will be pursued.

Payments can be made by check over the phone, by mail to the address in the upper right hand corner of this letter, or by overnight mail to address below.
