Dear ROBERT GITMEID LAW OFFICE, ESQUIRE:

Pursuant to our telephone conversation on 01/19/2024, it was agreed that your client would settle the account referenced above for $5,840.00 by making 24 payments. Please see the reverse for the payment schedule and mailing instructions. The settlement must be completed on or before 12/27/2025. We are not obligated to renew this offer.

Upon receipt and clearing of all payments, the account will be considered settled for less than the full balance, and no further efforts will be made to collect any remaining balance. Please be advised that if a payment is missed, this agreement will be void, and the entire unpaid balance will be due.

The state of New York requires us to provide you the following notice:

If a creditor or debt collector receives a money judgment against you in court, state and federal laws may prevent the following types of income from being taken to pay the debt:

- |   |  |
|---|--|
| 1. Supplemental security income, (SSI);                     | 7. Workers' compensation benefits;   |
| 2. Social security;   | 8. Public or private pensions;   |
| 3. Public assistance (welfare);                             | 9. Veterans' benefits;   |
| 4. Spousal support, maintenance (alimony) or child support; | 10. Federal student loans, federal student grants, and federal work study funds; and |
| 5. Unemployment benefits;                                   | 11. Ninety percent of your wages or salary earned in the last sixty days.            |
| 6. Disability benefits;                                     |  |

If you have any questions, please feel free to contact the undersigned at our toll free number listed above so that we may bring this matter to a conclusion.

This is an attempt to collect a debt and any information obtained will be used for that purpose. This communication is from a debt collector.

Sincerely,

Estate Information Services, LLC. dba
